The Registrar of the Real Estate Council of Alberta (RECA) has determined there is sufficient evidence you have contravened section 91(4) of the Real Estate Act Rules, and this is conduct deserving of a sanction.

Rule 91(4) – A brokerage’s accounting shall be filed with the Council not later than 3 months after the end of the brokerage’s fiscal year and shall cover the fiscal year or, where the brokerage did not carry on business for the entire fiscal year, that part of the fiscal year for which the brokerage carried on business.

Particulars of the contravention(s):

1. You failed to file your brokerage accounting within 3 months of your fiscal year end contrary to section 91(4) of the Real Estate Act Rules:
 - a) Your fiscal year end was December 31st, 2023.
 - b) You were sent emails to the brokerage email address and your personal address reminding you that the required accounting forms must be filed by April 1st, 2024.
 - c) These emails included clear instructions on what forms were required, a link to RECA's website that explained how to access the forms, and a warning that failure to complete the required forms by the deadline could result in an administrative penalty.
 - d) You were sent numerous reminders informing you the forms were past due.
 - e) On November 4th, 2024, you provided the required documentation, seven months past due.

The Registrar considered the following aggravating and mitigating factors:

Aggravating Factors

- RECA sent you several reminders about filing your brokerage accounting report on time and the consequences of failing to do so.
- The delay in reporting was over seven months.

Mitigating Factors

- Your brokerage is relatively new.
- You admitted fault and stated the brokerage has added safeguards to prevent this issue from happening again.
